

FARNHAM HOUSE WELCOMES ITS FIRST HOMEOWNERS

The UK's leading developer and manager of retirement communities, McCarthy Stone, has welcomed the first homeowners to Farnham House, its new Retirement Living development on Loughborough Road in Quorn.

Despite the uncertainties and challenges that the pandemic has presented, the team at Farnham House has worked closely with its homeowners, to ensure that they could move into their new homes safely and benefit from being part of a new, welcoming community during these turbulent times. The first homeowners to move in were John and Geraldine Harrison.

To celebrate this occasion and help them and others to settle into their new homes, each homeowner was presented with a welcome gift, including a hamper of goodies and flowers.

Geraldine comments: “We are absolutely thrilled with our new home at Farnham House. We both lead very active lives and wanted to spend our time doing all the things we enjoy, rather than on the upkeep of a house and garden, and our new apartment fits the bill perfectly. The team here have been absolutely wonderful helping us to settle in and we look forward to getting to know our new neighbours, especially as restrictions are starting to ease. We’ve only been here a few weeks, but we love it already and couldn’t be happier!”
